2011 NHLA SPRING CONFERENCE • MAY 5-6, 2011

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

At our opening session on May 5th, this year's Catherine Redden Lecture will be delivered by David McCauley, author, illustrator, and Caldecott Medal winner for his book, Black and White. With an additional 39 sessions ranging from youth book awards to tech tips to management strategies, there is a lot to learn and share. Whether you work in academic, public, school, or special libraries, you will find programs of interest. Administration, adult, young adult, children's and technical services are all represented in the assortment of programs planned.

Check our website
