NHLA Past President’s Report
February 2018

WildApricot: I’m planning two training sessions on WA via GoToMeeting. The first is scheduled for February 21 at 10:00 and will be an introduction with a focus on setting up events. The second will be aimed at membership and emailing with the date TBD. Each is designed to be about 30 minutes. I am happy to work with anyone individually as necessary.

Please verify for me who in your section or committee should have administrative permissions, if you have not done so already.

New website: Marina Buckler and I met to kickstart the new website design. I will be showing a preview at the EB meeting and seeking suggestions, as Marina cannot be there. Marina thinks the content should migrate easily and there is significantly more functionality.

Marilyn Borgendale, Immediate Past President
NHLA President’s Report for February 2018

Advocacy—Met virtually with Lori Fisher to set up Advocacy bootcamp Registration. Advocacy continues and we are gearing up for the next budget cycle when it is likely that IMLS and LISTA funding will be at risk again. I have asked Lori to attend legislative day in my stead.

Met with CE committee via GoToMeeting 1/16/18. A task force has been created to reboot the application criteria and process for mini grants.

Attended YALS section meeting on 1/25/18 and hope to attend another section board meeting before our April meeting.

At January’s officers meeting we concentrated on tightening up work flows and approval process for the treasurer to comply with the auditor’s recommendations. We also had a discussion about bring an overview of the Engage software to the entire board. Lori Fisher is working on this. We will be concentrating on the budget process at our March meeting.

On January 25th, YALS met at the Concord Escape Room NH to discuss how escape rooms can be used in NH libraries.

Lisa Harling has stepped down as YALS secretary and has been replaced with the newly elected Alex Graves from Manchester City Library. Alex was unanimously voted in as new secretary on January 25th.

YALS will next meet on March 22nd at 10:00 am at the Local Government Center in Concord, NH. We will discuss a partnership with kidlit603.org to create a Young Adult author database.

CLNH Report
NHLA Executive Meeting
2/9/2018

CLNH is in the process of planning our Spring conference; it will be held on May 17th at Pat’s Peak in Henniker, NH. Grace Lin will be our luncheon speaker and Sujei Lugo will be giving the morning presentation. We changed the deadline for the Librarian of the Year Award, and nominations will be due April 2nd.

Respectfully,

Paralibrarian Section Report for NHLA Board February 2018

It was decided at our last meeting, on 01/26/18, that the Continuing Education Committee would take over class planning for core courses that were previously offered by the Paralibrarian section. The Paralibrarian section will work on offering more "elective" style courses. This transition will be effective as of Fall 2018.

Eileen Gilbert was appointed as Chair of the Education Subsection, replacing Yvette Couser.

The New Hampshire Paralibrarian section will meet with the Massachusetts Paralibrarian section to discuss potential options for reciprocal certification and/or regional certification. Deb Hoadley has been invited to join us at this meeting as she worked with the Massachusetts Paralibrarian section previously, is the current Continuing Education Chair, and is currently a member with NELA which may be integral in this process should the outcome head towards a regional certification. The meeting will take place at Hooksett Public Library on Friday 04/27/18 at 10:00 am.

The committee is currently reviewing role descriptions of the Executive Board and subsection Chairs to ensure they are current.

New membership and renewals are down from both last year and our projected amounts for this year. We are hoping for a February bump because we had a slight uptick in February last year in renewals. Adam Di Filippe, Membership Chair, sent out an email via NHAIS-L encouraging membership.

The Paralibrarian Section has begun the process of transitioning to Wild Apricot for bookkeeping purposes.

We approved 1 application for level 3 certification.

The Paralibrarian section is planning to stop award presentation for certification levels at NHLA conferences due to the low level of paralibrarian attendance at these events, and the lack of ability for most support staff to attend in order to receive their certification. We are still discussing the best avenue for presentation and formal recognition but are leaning towards having them presented at future Paralibrarian workshops.

Respectfully submitted,

Sarah Frost

Advocacy Committee report for NHLA Board Meeting
February 13, 2018

1. The registration for the Advocacy Bootcamp workshops have been advertised to NHLA members and were open as of 2/2/2018. The session on Monday 3/12 is open to any librarian or trustee in the state, and will focus on general advocacy in communities. The cost to attend is $25 NHLA members/$30 non-NHLA members. The session on Tuesday 3/13 is invitation-only and is free to NHLA Executive Board members, Advocacy Committee members, and Intellectual Freedom committee members. This session will focus more on advocacy done by NHLA on a statewide basis, and I’m hoping some of the ideas generated will help the Advocacy committee draft an Advocacy Plan for the association this spring. Registrations for the Monday session are capped at 75 people, at the request of Hooksett Public Library, and as of Thursday 2/8 we have 35 pending or completed registrations. This one will fill, so I have not advertised it on NHAIS or NHLTA yet. That will happen next week, along with posts on FB. As NHLA Executive Board members, please contact me or Sylvie to RSVP for the Tuesday workshop. The costs/projected revenue for the Advocacy Bootcamp are page 2 of this report.

2. I would like to receive approval from the NHLA Executive Board to have any revenue monies above and beyond the costs for the Advocacy Bootcamps (as outlined on the next page) be set aside for use by the Advocacy Committee to further our efforts and implement the plan that is developed.

3. I have been corresponding with Andy Popovic from ALA regarding the implementation of Engage software through our NHLA web site. Engage is a platform that is provided free to all state chapters in order to allow easy promotion of activity on a legislative issue, and to keep supporters informed about news, etc. If you’d like more information about the software’s capabilities, visit https://info.cq.com/advocacy-software/cq-engage. This software replaces the former Capwiz software. Next steps for us are to have a phone conference between Andy, myself, Sylvie, Marina, and Marilyn to discuss integration with the new Wordpress site for NHLA. This should work easily, but need to keep pressing forward with the process.

4. I sat in on a conference call for Sylvie with the ALA Washington office regarding the upcoming FY 2019 budget. ALA is preparing for even worse cuts to federal aid/funding to libraries in the President’s FY 2019 proposed budget, and wanted to let all chapters know what ALA is preparing. One piece that I’m excited about is a story collection form that we can publicize among our libraries to submit stories of impact. Not only can ALA use submitted stories, but we will have access to them as well as the state chapter. That will help us with our own advocacy efforts.
5. I plan to get the Advocacy committee together before the Advocacy Bootcamps to touch base and discuss one or two ideas that have been floated for future efforts. As I’ve communicated to the committee members by email, this is a working committee and everyone will have something to do, no matter how small, between meetings to help move our advocacy efforts forward. At this time, it looks like we have 18 members on the committee, so I am hopeful that once we solidify a plan, we’ll be able to hit the ground running with it. Respectfully submitted,

Lori Fisher, Chair

NHLA Advocacy Committee

IT Section report to NHLA Executive Board

Feb 13, 2018

ITS had a meeting hosted by Mathew Bose at the Concord Public Library on January 26th, 2018. We had a presentation by Kyle Shaw from Concord City IT department who shared his experiences setting up and using Chromeboxes and Chromebooks with the Google Admin license, which allows administrators to manage the back end and create public kiosk mode, among other things.

We reviewed our by-laws changes (as voted by email) and we elected Steve Viggiano as Treasurer, since ITS needed one because we now collect fees for membership. The ITS Board is now Kate Thomas (Hampstead) as President, and Steve Viggiano (Manchester) as Treasurer.

We had some round table discussions where we shared some big happenings at our libraries. Anne Marie from Moultonborough shared that they are using Raspberry Pi machines for some of their public access machines, at a very affordable cost and so far, working out great!

The next IFC meeting will be held via GoTo Meeting on Thursday, March 1st. We plan to discuss the upcoming Choose Privacy Week (May 1-7). I’ve also encouraged members to attend the board and committees Advocacy Bootcamp on March 13th.

I will remotely attend the next ALA IFC State of the States meeting on Thursday, February 22nd.

The chair had a discussion with Sylvie about possible changes to the bylaws this year. We reviewed the bylaws for any areas that deal more with policy than strictly governance. It was determined that there are no areas, at this time, that require changes.

NHLA Continuing Education Committee Report

February 12, 2018

The CE Committee met on January 16, 2018. In attendance were: Bernie Prochnik, Eileen Gilbert, Sylvie Brikiatis, Sara Smith, and myself. There was also a task force meeting to review the application and criteria for the MacDonald Grant Fund, which met on January 22.

Things that were discussed at the meeting were:

1. CE throughout the state. How and what should we capture so people know the continuing education opportunities throughout the state. We will explore the possibility of a sub-calendar under NHLA. We will also look at expanding the CE tab/page on the NHLA website.
2. Committee would like to send out a short survey about what people want for topics, how they like to learn, and to also remind people there are grants and scholarships for CE.
3. We would like to send out 3-4 emails to NHLA members and through NHAIS highlighting CE opportunities, the survey, etc.
4. Updating the criteria and application for the MacDonald Fund Grant.

Things for NHLA Executive Board to consider:

1. Sub-calendar
2. Lower amount of grant award to $250 per fiscal year.
3. Criteria for grant – must be member of NHLA (this should be one of the benefits)
4. Total mileage reimbursement based on minimum of 50 round-trip miles.
5. Sending out survey to NHLA members and through NHAIS.

Future meetings will be held from 2-4pm on April 3, August 7 and December 4.

ALA Councilor Report

February 2018

I will be unable to attend the February NHLA Board Meeting as I will be in Denver at ALA Midwinter which is taking place later than usual this year. In addition to Council Sessions, I am looking forward to a discussion being led by ALA President Jim Neal examining the organizational structure of ALA. Conversations about how to make the structure more efficient, but also more welcoming to all members is of interest to me. How do we find our “homes” in ALA? What prevents members from finding their place within the association? Where are we missing connections?

Last month, I led an ALA webinar for new Chapter Councilors along with Ben Hunter, Idaho Chapter Councilor and will be mentoring 3 new Councilors at Midwinter.

The ALA Executive Director search is on hold. The ALA Executive Board appointed Interim ED, Mary Ghikas to the Executive Director position through January 2020. The Executive Board will reexamine the search including the makeup of the search committee at their Fall 2018 meeting with the intention of appointing a new ED by Midwinter 2020. While my time on the search committee is most likely done, serving on the search committee to this point has been a career highlight and while it didn’t result in a successful candidate, it was a dedicated and amazing group of professionals. highlight of my career.

My full report from Council Sessions at MW will be available on the NHLA Blog and NHAIS list during the week of January 19.

As always, I welcome questions, comments and concerns about any ALA matters.
