Call to order at: 2:03 PM

Members Present: Christine Friese, Amy Lappin, Sarah St. Martin, Deann Hunter, Kim Gabert, Sylvie Brikiatis, Amber Coughlin, Sam Lucius, Nancy Farwell, Betsy Solon, Todd Fabian, Julia Lanter, Lisa Cutter, Denise van Zanten, Deb Hoadley, Caitlin Loving, Randy Brough, Lisa Jose, Carlos Pearman, Emily Weiss, Azra Karabegovic.

Amy Lappin made a motion to approve the agenda with the addition of the ULAC bylaws, seconded by Amber Coughlin. Motion approved.

Motion to approve February executive board minutes made by Sylvie Brikiatis, seconded by Carlos Pearman. Motion approved.

- President’s Report
  - Attended the NHLTA meeting and they said they struggle with attendance from the north country. Suggested NHLTA collaborates with NHLA to offer a program geared toward both directors and trustees. If you have ideas send to Christine and Sylvie, or Lori for advocacy.
  - We have great support from our Congressional delegation!
  - No National Library Legislative Day this year, since ALA is in DC. If anyone wants to visit the Capitol at ALA in June, let Christine know. Or if you have stories to share, especially around veterans, families, education, programs, please send, so she can share those with our representatives or staff.
  - Not heard from anyone on state wide advocacy public service announcement. Idea will get dropped if there’s no interest. Can focus on upcoming elections.

- President Elect’s Report
- Past President’s Report
- Treasurer’s Report
- Approval of ULAC bylaw changes
  - ULAC changed some bylaws a while ago, but they weren’t formally approved. Name change from URBANS to ULAC, and other minor changes, including bringing population requirement down to 1500. Chair election is from Jan-Dec.
Motion to accept the ULAC bylaw changes made by Sylvie Brikiatas. Seconded by Julia Lanter. Motion passed.

- Spring Conference Update
  - One month away. Up to 16 paying vendors in, with an income of $9600. (No major sponsors.) Book store will be in vendor hall, as well as a table for NHLA raffles. Breakfast in vendor hall (bagel bar with fruit).
  - Registration table is outside vendor hall in ‘barn’ area. Registration costs should cover food.
  - Currently have 174 total registered (120 paying, others are a combination of vendors/speakers and conference committee members- Denise will finalize numbers of vendors/speakers who will need meals)
  - Conference committee did a great job putting together program at very little cost. All speakers confirmed. Most costs are mileage as many presenters are local professionals and presenting for free.
  - Mills Falls is very good with food allergies.
  - Need someone to help coordinate the dine-around, hopefully someone local.
  - Julia Lanter doing a trivia night Thursday.
  - Need help with nametags. Sylvie will help. Christine has tag holders.
  - Raffles. Christine has tickets, and Sylvie will also check. Process: have table, do during vendor times and registration. Can also have during the reception. Sylvie will bring a cash box and change.
  - Giving notebooks to attendees.
  - If sections have lists of titles for the bookstore, send to Casey Gerken (from Innisfree Bookshop: casey.innisfree2017@gmail.com) and also Randy and Denise.
  - Lobbyist Bob Dunn is doing a program on Friday about the legislative process. It should be a good session.
  - YALS sponsored pronoun stickers, will be by the registration table.
  - Hotel has signs up for rooms, no other directions.
  - Can park at any Mills Falls properties, and overflow at town dock.
  - Pool at church landing will be closed, spa and sauna open.
  - Sylvie will set up Survey Monkey for evaluations.

- Grow with Google
  - ALA partnered with Google for mini grants. Still a work in progress.
- See Past President’s report for details.
- Working on slimming down application, feedback initially overwhelming.
- If you have a program idea, it might be a good fit as it’s really open, so start thinking of ideas as the time frame is not long once it starts.

- Census 2020 – CCC kickoff June 20 in Concord
  - June meeting: census asking for local, state, regional groups to post counting committees. Kickoff for Statewide is June 20th. Should have an NHLA represented. Lisa might be interested, will have to see commitment.
  - RI doing a census solutions workshop (with 3 organization) on what the impact will be for Libraries, with the census being online. Christine and Deb will coordinate to see if something like this is in the works for NH.
  - Sylvie will send out links for more info. She’ll ask the local coordinator to come to June meeting.
  - Perhaps can have something at the fall conference, to let libraries know what’s going to happen.

- FY 2020 Budget
  - Still waiting on Small Libraries Summit. They do still want a budget. Added in $650 in both income and proposed budget.
  - Last year discussed an increase in dues, and came up with proposed fee structure. Need to approve that going forward if going to adopt. Will discuss at June meeting. Lisa will send out information. Will keep the $20,000 for now.
  - Kept rate at $20/hr for bookkeeper, $2400 for year.
  - Freedom to Read committee, leave at $50.
  - Discussion on membership request for $2000, to expand to get more people involved. This is an estimate as they’ve never had a budget before. If dues increase passes, will need to offer incentives to join. Raffles are both free gifts and ones people buy tickets for. Agreed to drop down to $1500, with no income line.
  - There is no excessive spending. Everything has been at the same level for 10 years, and the general agreement was we need to increase dues as a way to get out of a deficit budget.
o Restricted Funds: MacDonald Fund, $2000 for NELLS, and Continuing Education request dropped from $3000 to $2600. Was planning for 8 classes/year, but not set, so can look at for next time.

o Adjusted FY20 Budget from $8370 to $7870 deficit. NHLA savings is $60,095, which would cover deficit.

o Motion to accept the FY20 NHLA budget as amended here made by Deanne. Seconded by Deb Hoadley. Motion passed unanimously.

o Everything looked good for the section budgets, which are individually managed and don’t need approval.

- Section and Committee highlights
  - Scholarship
    o 2 applicants for Norris grant scholarship, none for the loan.
    o Azra mentioned can post on social media for fall.
  - Continuing Education Committee
  - Membership
    o If anyone wants to volunteer to help at the conference, please let Lisa know. Especially need help with Friday morning registrations, but other times as well.

NHLA President Elect Report

April 2019

Planning continues for the 2019 NHLA Fall Business meeting. The event will be held at the Hooksett Public Library on Friday, November 1, 2019. Rebekkah Smith Aldrich will be the keynote speaker. We are still talking about what her presentation will entail as well as the cost. Once Rebekkah’s details are firm, I will continue to plan the rest of the day.

In a recent ALA Chapter Relations Committee call, I learned that ALA is still working with Google on their Workforce Development Grant program. The roll out hasn’t been as smooth as ALA had planned. Hopefully, when NH’s turn arrives the grants will be an easier and less vague process. There was a recent webinar about the Google program that I hope to watch soon.

Respectfully,
Amy Lappin
NHLA Past President’s Report for April 2019

I worked with the membership committee to set up the registration for NHLA Spring conference. I also added the conference information to the NHLA website. I will continue to make myself available to the conference committee to help out where needed.

I attended the “Grow with Google” conference call and a short outline is attached.

I am working on a scholarship form for NHLA conference attendance, but have decided it is too late in the process to offer these for spring. The first scholarships will be for the Fall conference and applications will be made available following the Spring conference.

I will continue to make myself available to answer any of these procedural questions.

Respectfully submitted by,
Sylvie Brikiatis, NHLA Past President

Grow with Google

First stage

Grow with Google workshops at 2 to 3 libraries per state that include: (must be able to provide classroom space for 100)

- Train the trainer sessions
- 1 on 1 training
- Partner with local media outlets

Second stage

- Applications for individual library micro grants. Window open for about a month after Google tours are hosted in your state. Can preview the application now though.
- Commit to hold your activity within 60 days of being selected.
- Will then be eligible for $3000 grants that are being offered after original event at your library.

Call for Applications – www.ala.org/pla/initaitives/google For statewide tour locations. Phase 1 Tour Locations – www.grow.google/events/ Can see when your state is scheduled.

NHLA Continuing Education Committee Report
April 2019

The CE Committee met virtually on March 5 to review new CE Instructor Forms and decide how we want to proceed with the new CE schedule. The first class will be held on April 25 at the Lancaster Public Library (North Country region). Linda Kepner will be teaching the Fundamentals of Cataloging.

There was a question about the fee of the classes and what we should be charging, especially since there is a surcharge for any online payments. I reached out to the NHLA Board and it was recommended to charge $6 for a 2-3 hour class, and up to $10 for a full-day class.

We are working with the other instructors to set up a schedule of classes over the next year.

The CE Committee also approved a MacDonald Fund Grant for Catherine Callegari for $300. She will be attending the School Library Journal Day of Dialog on May 29, 2019.

The next CE Committee Meeting is scheduled for June 4 at 2:30pm. We are hoping to meet in person.

YALS April President’s Report

On March 28th, YALS met at HealthTrust in Concord, NH to discuss the upcoming Flume and Isinglass voting in April as well as our upcoming NHLA Spring Conference and YALS Fall Conferences.

Our Flume and Isinglass committees selected the 2020 lists for both awards on March 14th. YALS encourages all librarians working with Teens to vote throughout the month of April for the 2019 Flume and Isinglass Award winners, which will be announced at the NHLA Spring Conference. YALS officially voted to merge the Flume and Isinglass chairs into one teen book award chair. Barrington Public Library will also no longer be officially hosting the Isinglass website; this will now be housed under the YALS Teen Book Awards on the NHLA website.

The YALS Fall Conference will be held Thursday, September 26th 2019 at HealthTrust, located at 25 Triangle Park in Concord, NH. The Conference theme is TBD, but will be focused on Teens & the Written Word. The main conference speaker will be M.T. Anderson, 2019 recipient of the ALA Edwards Award. Other panels will focus on Teen Writers Groups, The NH Teen Poet Laureate Program, and “Now Steal This: Reader’s Advisory That Works” program exchange.

YALS will be sponsoring two panels and one trivia night at the upcoming 2019 Spring Conference. Panels will include the Flume & Isinglass Award Presentation, a Panel on Discovering Teen Resources in NH and perhaps a programming share round table (TBD).

YALS invites any interested members to our next Executive Board Meeting on May 30th at 10:00 am (with 9:30 am networking time) at HealthTrust, located at 25 Triangle Park in Concord, NH.

Respectfully Submitted,

Julia Lanter, President YA
CLNH April President’s Report

CLNH is seeking nominations for Children’s Librarian of the year. Selection criteria and eligibility information can be found on the CLNH website. The nomination deadline is May 24.

CLNH is in need of a new membership coordinator and an incoming vice president. Anyone interested is encouraged to reach out to any of our board members for more information.

The CLNH fall conference committee is reviewing several sites in the Manchester and Concord areas as locations for our October conference. The 2019 fall conference will focus on summer reading.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sam Lucius, President CLNH
READS President Report
For April 9, 2019

The READS Executive Board met on March 8, 2019 at LGC in Concord. The board set its 2019-2020 budget and finalized plans for the six programs that READS will be sponsoring at the NHLA Spring Conference. We established a Nominating Committee to recruit candidates for READS VP and READS Secretary and began planning the Annual READS Award of Excellence.

Other news from READS:

• On March 8th, we had 170 active members and 6 pending.

• A Facebook event page was created for the April 1st READS Policy Roundtable, including the link to register through Wild Apricot. In an attempt to increase READS presence on NHLA’s Facebook page, content has been posted with the hashtag - #READSnhla.

• We continue to transition online access for READS-TO-GO from a personal account to one managed by NHLA.

• READS-TO-GO has added 5 new kits since December. There were 54 new Kit Reservations in December of 2018. In January and February of 2019 there were 31 and 49 new Kit Reservations, respectively. Of the 22 newest Kits, 9 have caught up with or even surpassed A Man Called Ove as our most popular Kit. Saint Mazie is the current most popular Kit, booked through June of 2020.

• Our largest issue at the moment is the use of KitKeeper by non-librarians. Despite this, we have decided not to restrict the website. Instead, we are focusing on clarifying our policies to member libraries. To this end, we have replaced the KitKeeper header ‘Chose van delivery as your PICK UP library’ to ‘browse then CONTACT YOUR LIBRARY TO RESERVE KIT’.

Next READS Executive Board meeting: May 9th at 5:30pm at the Lake House Grill in Meredith, NH. (Our normal meeting date would be May 10th, but we will all be at the Spring Conference, so chose a time to meet while there).

ULAC Report to NHLA

April 2019

Topic: Privacy in the Workplace
Welcome to Mark Broth, from Drummond Woodsum, Attorneys at Law, specializing in labor and employment law.

1. How should we handle inquiries about staff members out on medical leave?
   - How much a staff member is paid & job titles and descriptions = public information
   - The fact a staff member is on leave = public information
   - What kind of leave = this is NOT public information

2. What information is public when a staff member leaves our employment?
   - Public has a right to know who is working.
   - The reason for someone leaving employment = NOT public information

3. An employee cannot be required to work 7 days straight. They can CHOOSE to do that.

4. Service animals vs. comfort animals. Comfort animals are not protected by law and we can require all animals permitted in our buildings to behave in the same manner.

5. Food safety concerns for programs where staff bakes items: recommend checking with local health officer and erring on the side of purchasing prepackaged food where ingredients are listed on the package.

6. Boards of Trustees and staff privacy: BOTs are employers and have the right to know the details and to be responsible with that private information. A single board member is a private citizen and has no right to private staff information. Any discussion of personnel issues MUST be done in a nonpublic session.

7. How to advise board members about their poor and/or illegal behavior? These discussions can be done in a nonpublic session; however, one board member calling another board member out for poor and/or illegal behavior needs to be done in a public session.

8. Special vs. emergency meeting. Both still need to be posted at least 24-hours in advance, per state law. If there is a true emergency and that cannot be followed, then the minutes are required to reflect the emergency nature of the meeting.

9. The only public employees that can be terminated “for cause” are police & fire chiefs, and library directors.

10. Is there a requirement to place library directors under an employment contract?
    - If hired without a contract, then the library director falls under the statute and is protected by it.
    - The director would need to agree to a contract if the trustees wanted one after hiring.
    - Library employees CANNOT be lumped under town numbers for FMLA. This situation must be navigated carefully, since there is often an expectation by staff even though it is not required by law.
Old Business:

- Librarians Guide to Homelessness: 69 people attended the webinar; Mary Ann still has some checks to submit to NHLA. Revenue was approximately $300 that covers the cost of handouts.

New Business:

- Discussion regarding dues increase to $50 per year and whether we want to lower the population requirement for ULAC membership to 13,000 (rather than 15,000). This could potentially include 6-8 towns/cities. Follow up details will be provided at the next ULAC meeting in Concord.

Sincerely,

Todd Fabian

Paralibrarian Section Report for NHLA Executive Board

The Paralibrarian Board met on February 8, 2019.

Sarah Cornell from Portsmouth Public Library has been appointed as the new Paralibrarian Section Membership Chair replacing Adam Di Filippo. We are hoping to be able to appoint a co-chair to help Sarah with some of the workload required of this position.

The Paralibrarian Section will be hosting two classes this spring:

1. On April 11th - “I’ve Weeded, Now What?” at the Weare Public Library. Michael Sullivan will be the instructor.
2. On May 22nd - “Growing Youth Collections: Collection Development in Children’s Services” at the Keene Public Library taught by Gail Zachariah.

Work on a mini Paralibrarian Section Conference continues. A committee has been formed with Cyndi Burnham of Goffstown Public Library acting as chair. A conference date of Friday, October 4th at 6pm at the NH Audubon Center in Concord has been set. The objective of the mini conference is:

- Yearly recognition of Paras earning certification.
- Attract new members with an introduction and explanation of our program
- Reconnect with seasoned members

There are no new certifications to report.

Our next meeting date is scheduled for Friday, April 12, 2019 at 10:00am at the Hooksett Public Library.

Respectfully submitted,
Lisa Cutter

Advocacy Committee report for NHLA Board Meeting, April 9, 2019

1. Engage implementation in NH

Engage is up and running, and we’ve sent out two Communications about the #FundLibraries Campaign (although one did not full execute in mid-March and right now I am troubleshooting an error message related to our advocates list, so some NHLA members may not be receiving the 2nd email communication – please check your spam folders). I am starting to write up instructions for creating the various pieces of this platform so that I can teach two or three others on the Advocacy Committee how to set up campaigns, engagements, and communications.

2. Update to Advocacy Toolkit page on NHLA web site

The NHLA Engage web site link has been added to our NHLA web site, and I checked all of the links to the other resources/tools listed on the page. Some I had to delete; some I had to update; and I added two other newer resources (the updated ALA Advocacy Resource page). Once Marina is back from maternity leave, I would like to discuss having something on our home page (a widget?) that directly links to our Engage platform and would therefore show any current issues we are taking action on.

3. Advocacy Workshops offered to state-wide library co-operatives

I presented a portion of the Advocacy Bootcamp to the staff of the Goffstown Public Library on Monday 2/18/2019, and to the RALI co-op on Thursday 3/7/2019. I need to follow up with the rest of the state co-ops to see if they are still interested in scheduling a part of the Advocacy Bootcamp in 2019, as part of our commitment through the “Train the Trainer” process at the 2018 NELA conference.

4. 2019 ALA Policy Corps

I attended an online meeting of the 2nd cohort of the ALA Policy Corps on March 4th, and am missing our April 2019 NHLA Executive Board meeting to attend a three-day in-person meeting with my colleagues in the Corps in Washington DC, April 8 – 10. While in DC, we’ll be hearing from a number of policy experts associated with ALA’s initiatives, and Corps members will start to decide what their policy focus will be for the next few years. Mine will likely be either federal funding for libraries or net neutrality (or both). I’ll keep you posted! The entire Corps (1st cohort and 2nd cohort) will meet together in DC during ALA Annual in June.

ITS Section Report to NHLA Executive Board

April 9, 2019

On February 29, an ITS meeting was held at the Wiggin Memorial Library. Eleven section members attended. We discussed STEAM toys and activities in the library for children and we had the chance to play with some from Wiggin’s expansive collection.

We would like to clarify that all members of NHLA are welcome to attend ITS section meetings unless specifically noted otherwise.

Due to recent feedback, there has been discussion about using GoToMeeting to reach members who are otherwise unable to attend. The Presidents will be hosting a GoToMeeting this summer.

We plan to reach out to Manchester Makerspace and Port City Makerspace to see if a volunteer would be available to speak to us about what they offer to the public and outreach programs they may offer for libraries. We are also seeking input from librarians who have designated makerspaces in their libraries.

ITS is excited to report the collaboration with READS to bring Jessamyn West to the spring NHLA conference has been successful. Her presentation, “Aging at the Library: Helping Older Citizens with Technology and Privacy in the Real World,” will be on Friday, May 10 from 11:30-12:30.

NHLA Spring Conference Report April 2019

Registration is open thru April 30th. The program is set and the committee is to be commended for their outstanding work on the content! They also did a superior job of keeping costs low and many sections are helping to pay for outside speakers. I cannot tell you how thankful I am for all their hard work and leadership!

I was on site at Mill Falls on March 28th and reviewed our room setups, where to locate registration and the vendor hall layout with Heather DeVincent. The vendor hall layout will include our 14 paying vendors to date as well as the NHLA tables and the Bookstore and is still a work in progress. There is a closet near where registration will be that we can store items for registration if we don't want to leave things out. I don't believe it locks.

I do need someone to handle the arrangements for making the nametags- Lisa and I think it is best if these are printed out ahead of time like we did at the last spring conference. Also the NHLA banners, raffle tickets, a cash box, and any other swag from the divisions and sections will need to be brought to the site.

I gave Heather our food selections for breakfast and lunch. I am still working with Heather on the cocktail hour selections. I am expecting an updated conference summary from Heather to verify our selections. Final numbers are due to her by May 1st and that should help us to firm up our costs. Any food that you hand out at your programs in your room should be prepackaged and be kept low key.

The Spring Conference program is being dressed up by Deb Young at MCL, I hired her to work on it for us. If anything is missing from the content it is all my fault! We will print them in house at my library so that I can have them stuffed with the flyers I am expecting from two vendors. To date I have the flyer from a vendor who still hasn't sent their check to us and don't have the flyers from the vendor who has sent their check!

Raffles are the last thing that needs to be coordinated and the staffing of the registration and NHLA tables. ULAC has a raffle coming, EBSCO provided a raffle item and Mill Falls is providing a raffle item for us to date. I am sure there are more coming I just don't have the details. I'll be on site by lunch time on May 8th to settle in so I can be ready to greet vendors. They can start loading into the Carriage house at 6 pm on May 8th.

I am reviewing payment forms now and should have those to Deann prior to our meeting next week.

Denise M. van Zanten

New England Library Association Report for the NHLA Board April 2019:

- The NELA Executive Board met at the South Windsor Public Library in South Windsor CT on March 15th, 2019.
- NELA job-hunting workshop tentatively scheduled for May at the Shrewsbury Public Library by the membership committee.
- The NERTCL standalone at the Nevins Memorial Library in Methuen on March 29th was well attended. There were sessions from keynote speaker Rita Meade, teen advocacy expert Luke Kirkland, an exploration of drag storytime experiences from both librarian and performer perspectives and roundtable discussions.
- The NETSL conference is on April 5th at College of the Holy Cross. Rhonda Evans is the keynote speaker.
- The Connecticut state conference will be April 29th and 30th at the Mystic Marriott in Groton CT. https://cla2269.wixsite.com/conference
- The Maine Library Association will hold its annual business meeting on 5/10/19. The theme is Development for Libraries with No Development Staff.
- The Massachusetts Library Association’s conference will be May 20th-22nd at the Sheraton in Framingham – https://mla.wildapricot.org/ The MLA has a managerial position open. They are starting two new sections – a leadership section and a reader’s advisory section.
- Rhode Island is having a new library building issue in Narragansett. The local town council is attempting to thwart the citizenry and library board in their efforts to move the library to a new space. The Board discussed a letter of support for them. Rhode Island Library Day is April 13th with events planned around the state and a general fine amnesty day.
- The 2019 Vermont Library Association meeting will happen on the 22nd of May. The theme is “resilience.” The conference will take place at UVM. Also, the State Librarian of VT is expected to name a new State Librarian but has yet to do so.
- The strategic planning committee hatched a project timeline for the consultants working on the NELA strat plan.
- The Maine library association is willing to discuss the possibility of a joint conference with NELA after 2022.
- NELA conference in October: Chris Grabenstein for NERTCL lunch, Bassey Ikpi for the adult lunch. Baker & Taylor and Harper Collins will be hosting book buzz lunches. There will be a drag show at the banquet, if all goes well with the Imperial Sovereign Court of CT. Susan Halpin from the US National Library of Medicine will likely be the keynote.
- The deadline for NELA conference program proposals is March 31st.
- NELA is migrating its wordpress site from Picturesque to Dreamhost. The plan is to migrate by April 11th. There is a new job plugin for the NELA website. The ITS section is talking with the helpdesk about the help desk becoming a true committee.
• A 60 day grace period has been added to Wild Apricot for Extended membership renewals to hopefully fine tune false reminder notices.

• 45 people have applied to be NELLS participants in 2019. 8 from CT, 14 from MA, 9 from ME, 9 from NH, 2 from VT and 3 from RI.

• One mentor from each state will be selected from names submitted by each state rep by Maureen Sullivan and the NELLS co-chairs.

• The state reps are asked to identify one NELLS alum to assist in the selection process as well. I have asked several from the NH class of 2017. The selection process will take place soon. Selections should be final by mid-May.

• The cost of NELLS this year is $700. NELA has submitted their invoice to NHLA.

• Consultants Marilyn Stempler and David Ebeneza from ESC Consultants are working on a strategic plan with NELA and met with the whole executive board for the first time.

• The next meeting of the executive Board will be May 17th, 2019 at the Portsmouth Public Library.

Respectfully submitted,

Amber Coughlin

NHLA representative to NELA
Center for the Book Advisory Board

The Center for the Book Advisory Board will next meet on June 6 at the State Library.

2019 Ladybug nominees have been announced. Letters about Literature winners will be announced later this month. This year, Franklin Pierce University has assisted with the judging and that has gone well.

Respectfully submitted,
Emily Weiss
Center for the Book Liaison
